

LOOK UP!

Do you spot a yellow-legged Asian hornet nest?

As the leaves fall from the trees this autumn, yellow-legged Asian hornet nests that were hidden in foliage during the summer months could be exposed. It is vital we find nests to aid efforts to prevent this invasive species from becoming established in the UK.

Please take a moment to LOOK UP next time you're out and if you see something that resembles the images below, REPORT IT!

All images courtesy John De Carteret, Jersey Asian Hornet Group

If you think you may have seen a yellow-legged Asian hornet nest in the Wiltshire area, please email martincphipps@btinternet.com, or call Martin on 07799 472084

Google Play store

If you see a yellow-legged Asian hornet, please send a photo to the AH Watch app - download from the QR codes here:

Think you've seen an Asian Hornet? Report it!

Report through the Asian Hornet Watch app or www.bit.ly/asianhornetreport

Apple store